

The Methodist Way: five essential practices in making disciples for Jesus Christ

Come early to the 2007 Florida Annual Conference Event, Tuesday, June 5, to learn more about “The Methodist Way.” Five different classes – one for each piece of The Methodist Way – will be offered in the Lakeland Center starting at 2:30 p.m., and repeating at 4:30 p.m.

The five essential practices are:

- Cultivating a congregation of passionate worshipers;
- Engaging our community and the next generation in radical hospitality;
- Forming mature apprentices of Jesus through deep and intentional discipling;
- Picking up our crosses in salty service in our community and the world;
- Pouring ourselves out in extravagant generosity.

Each church may send as many people as they wish to each of these classes, whether they attend Annual Conference or not. The classes are free.

Registration is not required, but by visiting www.flumc.org and clicking on the “Annual Conference” home page and then “The Methodist Way” link, we’ll know you’re coming and have enough chairs in the room for everyone.

For more information, call the Rev. Dr. Jeff Stiggins, Executive Director of the Office of Congregational Transformation – the sponsors of this learning opportunity – at 800-282-2811, Ext. 109.

The Methodist Way: five essential practices in making disciples for Jesus Christ

Come early to the 2007 Florida Annual Conference Event, Tuesday, June 5, to learn more about “The Methodist Way.” Five different classes – one for each piece of The Methodist Way – will be offered in the Lakeland Center starting at 2:30 p.m., and repeating at 4:30 p.m.

The five essential practices are:

- Cultivating a congregation of passionate worshipers;
- Engaging our community and the next generation in radical hospitality;
- Forming mature apprentices of Jesus through deep and intentional discipling;
- Picking up our crosses in salty service in our community and the world;
- Pouring ourselves out in extravagant generosity.

Each church may send as many people as they wish to each of these classes, whether they attend Annual Conference or not. The classes are free.

Registration is not required, but by visiting www.flumc.org and clicking on the “Annual Conference” home page and then “The Methodist Way” link, we’ll know you’re coming and have enough chairs in the room for everyone.

For more information, call the Rev. Dr. Jeff Stiggins, Executive Director of the Office of Congregational Transformation – the sponsors of this learning opportunity – at 800-282-2811, Ext. 109.

