

Anne Swerlick

Anne has over 40 years of experience as a public interest attorney, advocating on health, economic and social justice issues. Since 2017 she has worked with the Florida Policy Institute (FPI) as a Senior Policy Analyst focusing on health care and safety net program policy. Anne received her B.A. from the University of Virginia and her J.D. from the University of Virginia School of Law.