

Miss Tamra G. Fitzgerald

Tamra is a proud product of Gadsden County, Florida. She is in her graduating semester as the first dual major within the Florida Agricultural and Mechanical University College of Education, as a Mathematics Education and Chemistry Education scholar. Tamra is currently working within Gadsden County Schools as a Junior Varsity Girls Basketball coach at Gadsden County High School where she is pouring into the lives of girls aged 14 to 18 through the medium of sports to build character and life skills. As well as, a 6th and 8th grade Student Teacher at James A. Shanks Middle where she is applying her knowledge of education within the classroom setting both virtually and in-person to better equip the next generation to become life-long learners. Her campus life has been vibrant throughout her time on the Highest of Seven Hills. She has served as a mathematics tutor to prepare future teachers for their certification exams, served as President of the IMPACT @ FAMU Wesley Foundation, and extended her work with IMPACT as Assistant to the Director in the 2019-2020 academic year. She is a gifted poet, singer, developing musician, educator, and activist. She is a Forum of Theological Exploration 2020 Ministry Exploration and Mentoring project grant recipient. She hopes to utilize her funding to infuse spoken word in social media posts concerning advocacy, children, injustices in the legislative system, and specific concerns surrounding House Bills and Senate Bills being voted upon by committees. Her goal here is to give us an opportunity to reach more people with powerful content. This will be her second year serving as a Social Media Intern for our team.
