“But you will receive power when the Holy Spirit comes on you; and you will be my witnesses in Jerusalem, and in all Judea and Samaria, and to the ends of the earth.” Acts 1:8 (NIV)

This passage is speaking about our witnessing in Jerusalem (your church), Judea (your community), Samaria (places you don’t want to go), and to the ends of the earth (missions). With this in mind, take a strategic look at your current ministries and see how they fit.

Look at what programs, services, small groups, Christian education, etc. are currently being offered at the church. Some programs are inwardly focused, primarily taking care of the current congregation. This will help to identify, along with other tools like the MissionInsite report, what programs, services, etc. that you may consider for the future. These will strive to be outwardly focused looking at the community, the underserved, and what missions to support.

Consider what the next step might be to help a current program to become more outwardly focused. What is the next step for a new ministry idea?
